Set along one of Burnham's most favoured turnings is this improved semi-detached family home. The property is also conveniently situated within walking distance of all local amenities including Burnham-on-Crouch Primary School, railway station and historic High Street and riverfront. Deceptively spacious living accommodation commences on the ground floor with an inviting entrance hall leading to a cloakroom, kitchen, living/dining room, kitchen and conservatory. The improved first floor then offers a landing with access to three well proportioned bedrooms and a family bathroom. Externally there is a well presented rear garden while the frontage provides a further garden area and off road parking via a block paved driveway which also provides access to a garage. An early viewing is strongly advised to fully appreciate not only the deceptively spacious living accommodation but also the well presented decorative standard throughout. Energy Rating C.

BURNHAM ON CROUCH:

The town of Burnham-on-Crouch is situated on the banks of the River Crouch. Historically the town was first a ferry port, subsequently becoming a fishing port known for its oyster beds, and most recently a renowned yachting centre hosting the famous 'Burnham Week' at the end of August. The town has a population of little over 7,500, is the principal settlement in the Dengie peninsula and is consequently able to boast many amenities that are uncommon in small towns. These include two primary schools and an academy secondary school, cinema, Burnham yacht harbour/marina, several boatyards, four yacht clubs (including the Royal Corinthian & Royal Burnham), two supermarkets, no less than nine public houses, numerous restaurants and shops. There is a railway station on the Southminster branch line with direct commuter trains into London Liverpool Street (at peak times). The Burnham-on-Crouch Golf Club, founded in 1923, is situated in Creeksea on the outskirts of Burnham and enjoys breathtaking views over the Crouch Valley and River Crouch.
