An outstanding detached residence, situated in a highly private turning on the outskirts of the picturesque Burnham-on-Crouch. The majority of the main structure of this home was originally a period barn, thoughtfully relocated from Caidge Farm, adding both historical charm and character to the property. With its distinctive blend of rustic appeal and contemporary living, Caidge Cottage offers a truly unique opportunity for prospective buyers.

The property is set on an impressive plot of approximately 0.4 acres, with beautifully maintained mature gardens providing both privacy and tranquillity. To the rear, the gardens offer stunning views over open farmland, enhancing the rural feel of the home. This idyllic setting ensures that Caidge Cottage is a peaceful retreat, while still being within easy reach of local amenities and the coastal town of Burnham-on-Crouch.

Internally, the home exudes charm and character, with an abundance of period features, including exposed beams, studwork, purlins, original floorboards, and solid wood internal doors. These architectural details, combined with the sense of space throughout the home, create a welcoming and homely atmosphere. The property also benefits from gas underfloor heating throughout.

INTERNAL ACCOMMODATION:
