Village of Burnham-on-Crouch

Burnham-on-Crouch is a picturesque town on the banks of the River Crouch, a renown yachting and sailing centre hosting the famous 'Burnham Week' at the end of August. The town has a population of a little over 9,500 and is the principal settlement in the Dengie peninsula. Consequently it boasts many amenities that are uncommon in small towns including two primary schools and an academy secondary school, cinema, Burnham yacht harbour/marina, several boatyards, three yacht clubs (including the Royal Corinthian & Royal Burnham), two supermarkets and numerous individual shops, public houses and restaurants. There is a railway station on the Southminster branch line with direct commuter trains into London Liverpool Street (at peak times). The Burnham-on-Crouch Golf Club, founded in 1923, is situated in Creeksea on the outskirts of Burnham and enjoys breathtaking views over the Crouch Valley and River Crouch.

AGENTS NOTE:

The flat is currently let at £650pcm with approximately 6 months remaining on the lease. We feel that the current market value of the flat would be in the region of £700pcm.

The shop front is currently let with 3 years remaining on the lease, tenant currently paying £450pcm. Current market value £600pcm.
