Occupying an enviable plot approaching 0.25 of an acre with a gated entrance within walking distance of Burnham's historic town centre, railway station, post office, doctors surgery, variety of pubs and restaurants, marina and picturesque walks along the River Crouch, is this extended, stylishly improved and wonderfully maintained detached bungalow presented to the highest specification throughout. Aesthetically pleasing living accommodation commences with an inviting entrance hall leading to a refitted family bathroom, three well proportioned double bedrooms, secondary kitchen/utility room with appliances and superb refitted kitchen at the rear with large island unit, integrated appliances and opening to a living/family area with lantern window and bi-folding doors opening on to a picturesque rear garden. Externally, the property enjoys a wonderfully landscaped rear garden measuring in excess of 100' with an entertaining/dining area to one side, several storage sheds/outbuildings, two greenhouses and a cabin with power and light connected ideal for use as a home office, gym or games room. A generously sized sideway is accessible from both the rear and front and offers enough space to house a boat if required while the attractive frontage offers extensive off road parking and mature and established beds to borders as well as the aforementioned gated access. Viewing is strongly advised to fully appreciate the standard, location and space on offer, both inside and out. Energy Rating F.

BURNHAM-ON-CROUCH:

Burnham-on-Crouch is a picturesque town on the banks of the River Crouch, a renown yachting and sailing centre hosting the famous 'Burnham Week' at the end of August. The town has a population of a little over 9,500 and is the principal settlement in the Dengie peninsula. Consequently it boasts many amenities that are uncommon in small towns including two primary schools and an academy secondary school, independent cinema, Burnham yacht harbour/marina, several boatyards, three yacht clubs (including the Royal Corinthian & Royal Burnham), two supermarkets and numerous individual shops, public houses and restaurants. There is a railway station on the Southminster branch line with direct commuter trains into London Liverpool Street (at peak times). The Burnham-on-Crouch Golf Club, founded in 1923, is situated in Creeksea on the outskirts of Burnham and enjoys breathtaking views over the Crouch Valley and River Crouch.

Whilst every attempt has been made to ensure the accuracy of the floorplan contained here, measurements of doors, windows, rooms and any other items are approximate and no responsibility is taken for any error, omission or mis-statement. This plan is for illustrative purposes only and should be used as such by any prospective purchaser. The services, systems and appliances shown have not been tested and no guarantee as to their operability or efficiency can be given.
