A beautifully renovated Grade II listed four-bedroom detached cottage situated in the heart of the picturesque village of Tillingham, within the desirable Dengie Peninsula, and just eight miles from Burnham-on-Crouch. This charming period home has been sympathetically updated by the current owners to a high standard throughout, combining original character features with stylish modern finishes. The ground floor offers generous and versatile living accommodation including a stunning re-fitted country-style 'L'-shaped kitchen and breakfast room, a spacious lounge with an Inglenook fireplace, a separate dining room with a second Inglenook fireplace, a cosy study/snug, utility room, cloakroom and a beautifully re-fitted family bathroom. On the first floor, the property continues to impress with four well-proportioned double bedrooms and a modern re-fitted shower room, making it perfectly suited for family living. Externally, the home benefits from a generous front driveway providing ample off-road parking, with a well-maintained lawned frontage. The rear garden offers a large patio seating area ideal for entertaining, with the remainder laid mainly to lawn. A substantial triple detached garage/workshop with power and lighting is located at the rear, along with further parking. Tillingham is a historic and highly regarded village, designated as a conservation area and offering a range of local amenities including two public houses dating back to the 15th century, a primary school, doctors' surgery, village shops, church and a bowls club. Surrounded by countryside and footpaths, it is ideal for those who enjoy walking and outdoor pursuits, while still being within easy reach of Burnham-on-Crouch for further amenities and transport links. Viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate the character, space and quality this delightful home has to offer. EPC Exempt.
