Offered for sale with NO ONWARD CHAIN, this beautifully presented four-bedroom detached bungalow sits in a secluded position at the end of a quiet cul-de-sac within the ever-popular waterside village of Mayland. Ideally located for local amenities, the home is just a short distance from shops, the village school, doctors' surgery and scenic riverside walks along the River Blackwater.

Occupying approximately a quarter of an acre, the property offers an exceptional blend of space, privacy and comfort. Inside, the accommodation includes four generously sized double bedrooms, a spacious 22ft+ lounge ideal for relaxation or entertaining, a well-appointed kitchen, separate utility area, and an impressive refitted family bathroom.

Externally, the property boasts fantastic outdoor space, featuring an inviting decked area designed for a Jacuzzi and BBQ—perfect for hosting family and friends. The extensive rear garden provides ample room for children to play, gardening enthusiasts to enjoy, or simply a tranquil setting to unwind.

To the front, formal gardens lead to gated access and a driveway, which in turn offers entry to a substantial detached garage measuring 27'. The property has been lovingly maintained over the years, creating a rare opportunity for those seeking a long-term family home in a peaceful and private setting. Energy Rating D.
