The seamless flow from room to room enhances the sense of space and accentuates the impeccable craftsmanship that defines this residence. To this floor, the principal suite is secluded from the rest of the plan, with a wall of pitched glazing and a sliding door that opens to provide access to a private terrace. The ensuite wet room style shower room and wardrobe/dressing area providing ample storage to both low and high level. To the westerly end of the house, the three remaining bedrooms are all equipped with a full range of bedroom furniture, two offering ensuite facilities and the third fitted as a study/home office with bespoke fitted furniture.

The stunning kitchen/dining/family room, at Graylings is a true centerpiece of the home, thoughtfully designed to combine luxury, comfort and functionality. This expansive open-plan space features a dramatic vaulted ceiling drawing in light and creating an impressive sense of scale. Designed to capture both the quiet beauty of sunrise and the golden hues of sunset, the room enjoys a triple aspect, including a charming window seat - perfect for morning coffee or afternoon reading. Large sliding doors open to a Juliet balcony, offering sweeping views and a seamless connection to the outdoors. At the heart of the space, a bespoke kitchen by 'Holloways' delivers exceptional craftsmanship and modern convenience.
