A very unique and commanding four double bedroom double fronted semi-detached family home set on this spacious corner plot, attractively offers a garage and off-street parking.

Well proportioned throughout, the ground floor accommodation offers a spacious front dining room, separate utility (with shower-room) and two large reception rooms with the kitchen to the rear.

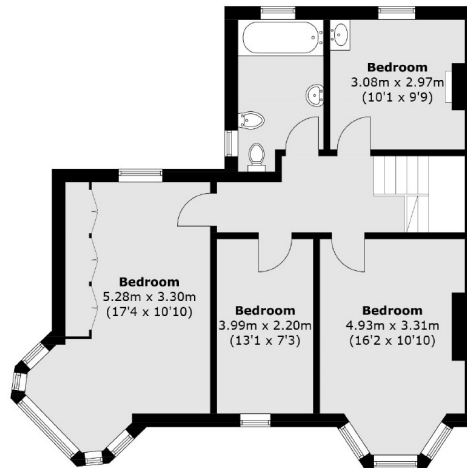

Well proportioned throughout, the ground floor accommodation offers a spacious front dining room, separate utility (with shower-room) and two large reception rooms with the kitchen to the rear. The first floor comprises four double bedrooms and family bathroom. This is beautiful family home which has a double fronted aspect with long established gardens at both the front and back as well as a driveway and garage parking. The property maintains many of its original features and there is plenty of opportunity to extend into the loft (which many of the neighbours have done so planning permission should not be an issue).

Ideally located to get the benefits of both Northfields & Ealing. Easy access to West Ealing or Ealing Broadway stations (Elizabeth Line) which provide unrivalled access to Central London. Local parks to enjoy include Lammas & Walpole.
