

90 St. Marys Road, Market Harborough, LE16 7DX

£580,000

A truly rare and exciting proposition! This substantial period home dating back to 1897 offers a fabulous town centre location within walking distance to Market Harborough train station, shops, schools, parks and vast amount of amenities. There is an abundance of living space, large south facing garden and scope for further extension (STPP). This lovely home boasts a spacious entrance hall, formal sitting room, separate dining room, kitchen, utility and snug to the ground floor. The first floor offers three spacious double bedrooms, a further bedroom/study and family bathroom. To the second floor is a large bedroom with the potential to become a master suite with space for dressing room and en-suite. The property benefits from off road parking for three cars to the front, with independent pedestrian side access to the rear. The large, southerly facing rear garden offers an ideal spot for 'alfresco' dining on the patio with steps down to the lawn, fringed by well stocked borders, backing on to the river 'Welland' beyond, creating complete privacy and tranquility for such a central position.
