Description

Fine non estate detached house in a convenient semi rural position. Backing into open fields with the North Downs beyond, yet within walking distance of Penenden Heath and its excellent amenities. (shops, schools, etc.) The owners have been in occupation for the last 25 years and have maintained and improved the property to a high standard. An inspection is highly recommended with a Southern aspect to the front and stunning views to the rear. The accommodation features, a superb kitchen/breakfast room, bathroom , 4 double bedrooms, cloakroom, landscaped gardens with secluded seating areas, off road parking for 2 vehicles, garage.

Location

Located in this unique position on the outskirts of Penenden Heath, backing onto farmland at the rear, with a delightful outlook. The Heath is within a quarter of a mile and has shops providing for everyday needs, excellent recreational facilities including tennis, bowls, together with numerous countryside walks, children's play area and pre-school. Educationally the area is well served the local Sandling School, also being within a quarter of a mile catering for infants and juniors. North of the property is Boxley Village, steeped in history with its connections to Alfred Lord Tennyson and access onto the Pilgrims Way and North Downs, renowned as an area of outstanding natural beauty. Maidstone the County town is some one and half miles distant, in a southerly direction and offers a more comprehensive selection of amenities consistent with it's County town status. The M20/M2/M25 and M26 motorways are also close by and offer direct vehicular access to both London and the Channel Ports.
