the key to your home

Stepping in to this 1950s built family house you enter the hallway with parquet flooring and a turning staircase to the first floor.

The lounge leads out on to the patio via a double glazed sliding patio door and also has a double glazed window to the front. The separate dining room has a lovely double glazed bay window to the front and a further double glazed window to the side aspect. The kitchen comprises a range of wall and base mounted units with worksurfaces over, NEFF eye level oven and AEG electric hob, stainless steel sink with drainer, space for fridge freezer and double glazed window to side aspect. The utility room is just off the kitchen and has space and plumbing for a washing machine and dishwasher, composite sink and drainer, a double glazed window to the rear providing views across the estuary and a door leads off to the WC and a further door opens out onto a porch overlooking the garden with access to the garden and further access to the spectacular garage.

Ascending the stairs to the first floor landing there is a great sized double glazed window to side aspect, a cupboard housing the boiler and hot water cylinder and loft access hatch. There are four bedrooms, two have double glazed windows to the front aspect with sea views and two have double glazed windows to the rear aspect with amazing views down the Teign estuary. The bathroom/WC has a bath and a shower cubicle, low level WC, pedestal wash hand basin and a frosted glazed double glazed window to the side.

There is gas central heating.

There is a driveway to the side of the house providing parking and leading to the larger than average detached garage. There is a front lawned garden.

The rear garden is west facing so enjoys the sunshine. It is a good size with terrace, lawn and estuary views, a greenhouse and outside tap. There is a cellar under the terrace.
