the key to your home

A detached 1950s modernised and extended house with sea, estuary and moorland views.

As you enter this immaculate 1950's detached family home via a part glazed composite front door, you step in to a light hallway with plenty of space for coats and shoes. Doors lead off to the primary rooms and utility room. The utility room has space/plumbing for a washing machine, dryer, fridge/freezer and has a door to a downstairs WC.

The lounge is an amazing room with wonderful bifold patio doors on to the decked area of the garden with a window to the side aspect and part glass ceiling and underfloor heating. A second reception room provides versatile space with a window to the side aspect.

The kitchen/dining room is a great sized triple aspect room with stunning views to the back beach and Ness, with wall and base mounted units with integrated fridge/freezer, dishwasher, electric oven and electric hob with plenty of space for a dining table and chairs. There is a pantry and cupboard housing the Worcester combi boiler.

Ascending the stairs to the first floor there is a great sized window to the side aspect, doors off to the bedrooms and family bathroom and stairs rising to the master bedroom. All three first floor bedrooms are good sized double bedrooms with spectacular views either to the back beach or Dartmoor. The fully tiled bathroom has an obscure window to the front aspect and comprises a double shower, panelled bath, concealed cistern WC, wall mounted wash hand basin with cupboard under, heated towel rail and underfloor heating. The second landing outside the master bedroom has a Velux window to the front aspect and ample under eaves storage. On entering the bedroom your eyes are drawn towards the views to Dartmoor. There are fitted wardrobes, a further window to the front aspect and a door to the ensuite which comprises a double shower, low level flush WC, wash hand basin, heated towel rail and underfloor heating.

Lawn with patio and decking, outside tap and side access to front. There is a garden office fitted with light and power with window to side aspect and a storeroom with light, power and water.

Block paved driveway with parking for three cars and electric charging point.
