The grand arrival...

Positioned down a quiet road, yet conveniently placed within easy reach of local amenities, Oak House enjoys a balance of privacy and everyday ease. Secure, timber gates open onto a generous shale driveway providing ample parking for multiple vehicles, with a lawned area to the front.

Upon entering the property, an immediate sense of luxury is established by the impressive entrance hall, unfolding behind a set of double doors with opaque insets and panels to either side. A striking, central staircase rises to the galleried landing above, complete with a tiered crystal prism chandelier forming the focal point of the space. This is complemented by recessed downlighting which, paired with the grey ceramic tile flooring warmed by underfloor heating, creates a warm and welcoming introduction before connecting to the rest of the accommodation.

Spaces to unwind...

Throughout the property, oak internal doors accented with black hardware lead into each room, with a double set opening to reveal the first reception room. Generous in both scale and light, the space is enhanced by a large front-facing window alongside two additional windows flanking the chimney breast, complete with a flue. A television point is positioned above this, while recessed downlighting ensures the room remains bright and inviting as daylight fades into evening.

The second reception room also features windows to the front and side of the property, with a television point and both recess downlights and modern, fluted wall sconces illuminating the space. This versatile space is well suited for use as a children's playroom, study or snug.

The ground floor w.c. is fitted with a two-piece Villeroy & Boch suite, comprising a wall-mounted wash hand basin and a back-to-wall w.c. finished with matte black accents. Completed with neutral-toned tiling featuring a warm beige veining to splash areas and contrasting grey ceramic floor tiles, the space is further enhanced by recessed downlighting and an extractor fan.

Beyond the front door...

The historic village of Mawdesley, thought to date back to the reign of Edward I (1272–1308), has a vibrant heart with many local events taking place such as The Village Fete and the Traditional Walking Day. The property is well positioned within the catchment areas for a number of highly regarded schools, including St Peter's C of E Primary School, St Peter's & St Paul's Catholic Primary School and Bishop Rawstorne C of E Secondary School.

At the heart of the village is the Red Lion public house and first-rate restaurant, a brilliantly stocked Spar general store and post office and sporting facilities include cricket, tennis and bowling clubs and the excellent village hall.

There are three fishing ponds at Crook Hall Farm along with two holiday cottages and two beautifully presented shops: The Bay Tree Flower Farm & Hattie Smalls. A further great draw to the village is the wonderful and established Cedar Farm Gallery offering a wide variety of artisan stores to wander through and having a children's farm and play centre alongside.
