Sharphill Wood

Sharphill Wood

Sharphill Wood is a beautiful woodland in the heart of the Cotswolds, near the village of Charlton Kings. It is a Site of Special Scientific Interest (SSSI) and is home to a wide variety of plants and animals. The wood is particularly famous for its ancient trees, many of which are over 100 years old. The ground is covered in a thick carpet of moss and ferns, and the air is filled with the sound of birdsong.

The wood is a popular destination for walkers and cyclists. There are several paths through the wood, and the views from the top are spectacular. The wood is also a great place to see some of the rare plants and animals that live in the Cotswolds. If you are lucky, you may see a red squirrel or a badger.
