The Site

Prominent roadside commercial land opportunity on a major new link road

Ideal position for roadside leisure and retail use

Fast last mile logistics access to the Nottingham City region

More than 1,000 new homes and a country park on the doorstep

Existing income generating occupier

Ideal for roadside retail

The long frontage to Colliery Way, plus direct access from the roundabout, presents an ideal roadside, leisure and retail opportunity. Significant interest has already been received from a major supermarket and fast food chain.

Superb last mile location

The opportunity is positioned immediately opposite a fast-growing development of over 1,000 new houses. Colliery Way offers fast access to central Nottingham, with nearly 2.78 million consumers living within 45 minutes by van.

Positioned next to a popular Country Park

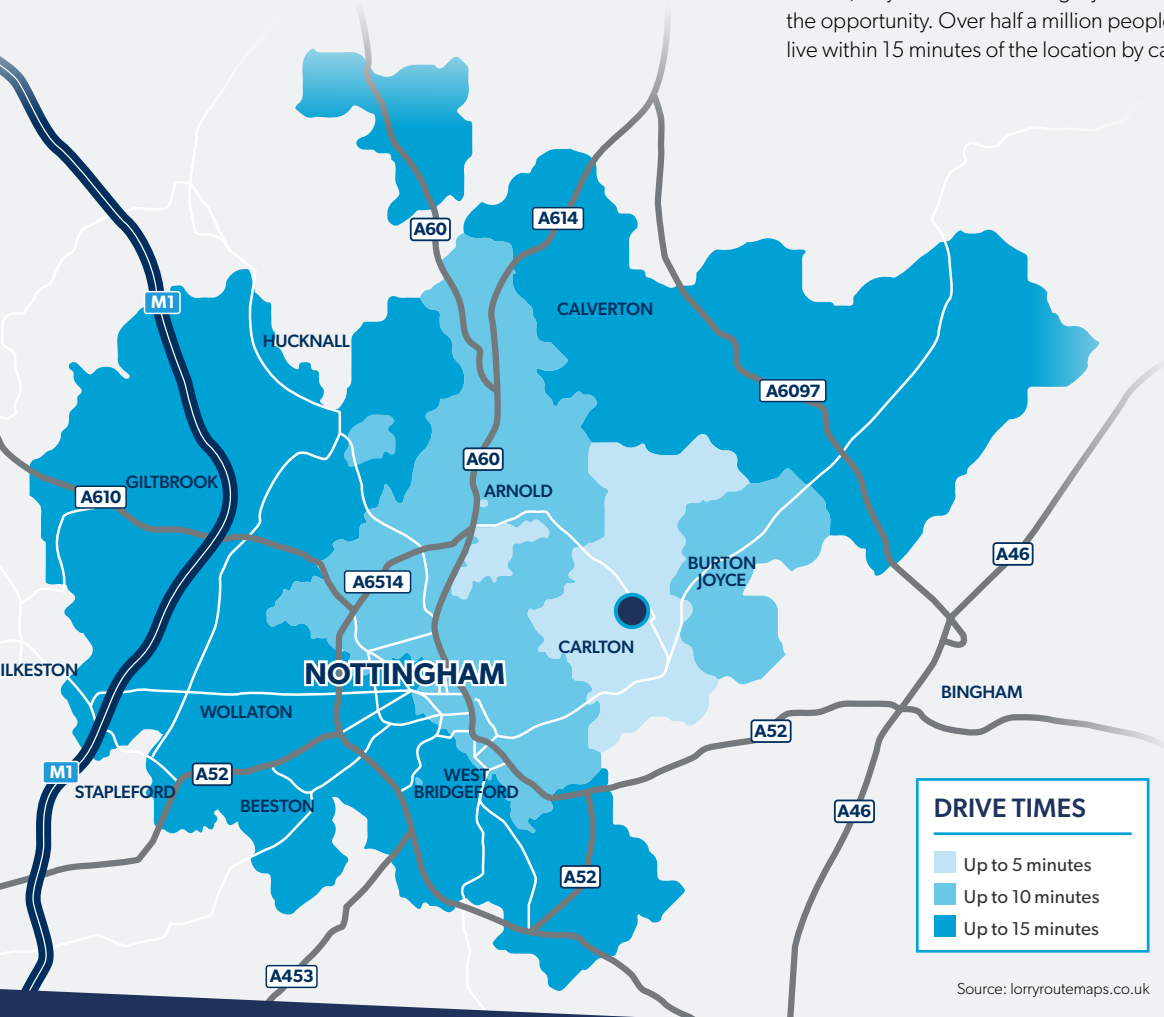

Immediately adjacent to the site lays the 580-acre Gedling Country Park. Pedestrian access from the housing estate opposite is made via a path at the eastern end of the opportunity.

Large consumer base on the doorstep

The opportunity is situated within the fast-growing town of Gedling, on the edge of Greater Nottingham.

A number of large scale new housing developments are clustered around Colliery Way. Established areas such as Mapperley, Arnold, Daybrook and Gedling lay close to the opportunity. Over half a million people live within 15 minutes of the location by car.

Colliery Way presents a major new access route into the area. At the western end lies the A60, the main north-south route into the heart of Nottingham. At the eastern end, the A612 connects to the city centre, areas south and East of Nottingham, and the A46.
