Location

The site is located in Gaydon, an affluent village in Warwickshire. The village lies a short distance from Junction 12 of the M40 Motorway (0.5 miles), which connects Birmingham in the North, to London in the South. The village is largely residential but is home to two major commercial operators, which include the Jaguar Land Rover design, development and testing facilities as well as the Aston Martin Headquarters.

The site sits on the junction of B4100, the main route through the village, and Pimple Lane. The site can be accessed via the Esso Petrol Filling station adjacent, or directly off Pimple Lane. Occupiers within the PFS also include a Spar convenience store as well as Greggs concession.

Description

The site comprises of a bungalow with a loft conversion and garden to the rear, as well as a workshop of brick construction to the south of the site, most recently used as an MOT garage.

The site benefits from a prominent roadside frontage on to the B4100 of c.190ft.
