Location

The premises are located in Beverley, an affluent market and minster town with a population of c. 30,000 people. The county town of East Riding is situated 8 miles northwest of Hull and famous for its racecourse and voted as one of the best places to live in the UK. The property fronts Swinemoor Lane (A1174) which is a main arterial route on the eastern side of the town with surrounding occupiers to include Wickes, Aldi, MKM Building Supplies, Travis Perkins, and a new Lidl close by.

Description

The premises comprise a modern car dealership with showroom, partitioned offices, parts storage and staff and customer wc's on ground floor. The showroom features a prominent double height glazed frontage, tiled floor, with spot lighting and gas heaters. The property also benefits from further office space at mezzanine level. There is an integral workshop and valet bay surrounding the showroom with MOT bay, exhaust venting system, gas heaters and space for 9 ramps. The workshop benefits from halogen lighting, tiled floor and 7 roller shutter doors providing access on three sides of the building. Externally the site benefits from 33 display spaces and 75 parking spaces together with a valet bay and oil store.
