The Property

A charming character home, Buttercup Cottage is a pretty Cotswold stone period cottage situated in one of Tetbury's oldest side streets close to the market square, within striking distance of the church, shops and countryside walks. Believed to date back to the 18th Century and built mainly of natural stone, the cottage was extended in the late 20th Century with a two-storey extension to the rear whilst retaining a lovely period features including exposed beams and a traditional fireplace.

Having been most recently used as a holiday let, the accommodation is very well presented and is arranged over two floors extending in all to 829 sq.ft. On the ground floor, an entrance lobby opens to a spacious and characterful reception room with surprisingly high ceiling, leading to a kitchen with underfloor heating and a breakfast bar. A winder staircase from the living room leads up to the first-floor landing with an airing cupboard whilst there are two double bedrooms both with fitted wardrobes, and a modern shower room. A drop-down ladder accesses the attic which has potential for further conversion (subject to usual planning permission).

Externally and accessed from the kitchen there is a delightful, 70' long sunny garden which has been landscaped with lawn, gravelled sun terrace and flower bed borders plus a timber garden store. There is a lovely view of the Church spire from the garden. There is on street parking readily available in West Street and West Street public car park where permits can be obtained.
