Location

North Owersby, Market Rasen a rural farming village in the civil parish of Owersby on the edge of the breathtaking Lincolnshire Wolds, an area of outstanding natural beauty. The property is adjacent to the Kingerby Beck Meadows Nature Reserve, offering a serene and scenic environment perfect for nature enthusiasts and those seeking tranquility. Local shopping facilities are available nearby, with a post office and general store situated in Osgodby, just a five-minute drive away. For larger shopping needs, a range of supermarkets and retail outlets can be found in Market Rasen, approximately four miles away, as well as in Caistor. Medical provision is also well served, with doctors' surgeries and dental practices close at hand, alongside major NHS hospitals and medical centres within easy reach.

Connectivity

The village boasts excellent connectivity with convenient road links via the A46, A16, and A18, providing easy access to major motorways including the M180, A1(M), and M1. Larger cities such as Lincoln, Hull, Sheffield, Leeds and Manchester are all within easy reach. For international travel, Humberside Airport, East Midlands Airport, Leeds Bradford Airport and soon to be opened the Robin Hood International airport are a short drive away. Additionally, direct train services to London are available from Lincoln.

Education

The property is located within the catchment area for the prestigious Caistor Grammar School, Osgodby Primary School and the Caistor Yarborough Academy ensuring top-quality education opportunities for families. Further and higher education needs are served by Lincoln College of Further Education and Lincoln University, whilst the Russell Group Universities of Sheffield, Leeds and Manchester are within easy commuting distance.
