Cobbles bring to the market this wonderful three-bedroom detached family home, situated in the highly desirable Rydes Hill area.

The ground floor of the property comprises an entrance hall, cosy lounge with log burner, dining room with feature fireplace, downstairs WC and a well-equipped galley kitchen. The kitchen offers an abundance of surface space which leads out into a breakfast bar. Along with the dining room, this then opens out into the extended family room which offers a great deal of additional living space and direct access to the garden through a set of double doors.
