Lilac Cottage, Furnace Lane, Cowden, Kent TN8 7JU

A beautifully presented former farmworkers cottage to the Basing Estate which has been sympathetically extended and refurbished to a high standard. The property is semi detached and stands in a truly rural setting one and a half miles down a country lane with lovely views. The house dates from the Victorian era and has been the subject of an extensive overhaul over the last four years to include an extension to the rear in keeping with the property's original Sussex style, new oil fired heating with an external boiler, oak flooring, beams, a completely refitted kitchen/dining room, and two new bath/shower rooms with Burlington fittings. The interior of the house has well arranged accommodation extending to over 1400 square feet, is light and includes modern fittings, whilst outside the gardens have been landscaped and carefully planned. The main front door opens in to the hall off which is a cloakroom, understairs cupboard. The south facing living room has a fireplace with a wood burner, fitted cupboards either side and book shelves. The enlarged kitchen/dining room extends to over 21 feet and is extremely light and thoughtfully arranged with butchers block worktops having an extensive range of drawers and cupboards under, a breakfast bar with shelving and recess for a dishwasher, adjacent utility area with plumbing and recess for automatic washing machine, stable door to the garden. There is a comfortable dining area overlooking the gardens and a useful fitted work/study alcove. The first floor has the best of the lovely countryside views and includes the main bedroom with a modern en suite shower room. There are two further bedrooms and a larger shower room with walk in shower, W.C. suite, marble topped vanity unit, and heated ladder towel rail.
