Five Bedroom Detached House

Situated Close To the Promenade & Enjoying Sea Views

Description

This attractive double fronted five bedroom detached house was designed and lived in by the renowned architect Sidney Faulkes. This Grade II listed property has recently been refurbished throughout to an extremely high standard and whilst retaining the character and charm of an individually designed house a beautiful modern family home has been created. The property also benefits from sea views and is only a stones throw from the promenade and close to the amenities of Rhos on Sea and Colwyn Bay.

Outside there is a garage to the front of the property, a tiered front garden and lawn to the side and rear. There are also covered paved seating areas to the front and rear with distinctive original verandas.

The accommodation on the ground floor comprises of hallway, light and spacious double aspect lounge with panelling, coved ceiling and access to the garden, dining/sitting room, w.c., and large kitchen/breakfast room with a range cooker and access to a utility room. To the first floor the split level landing gives access to five bedrooms, three benefitting from sea views and a family bathroom with separate bath and shower.

There is a newly installed gas central heating system and the windows are a mixture of double glazed or refurbished single glazed that are in keeping with the property.
