About the property

A substantial and well proportioned detached five bedroom family home located in the rural and highly regarded Vale Village of Llancadle. This quaint village is nestled within the Vale Countryside and is within a short drive to the A48 which offers excellent access to Cowbridge, Culverhouse Cross and on to the Capital City. In addition to this it is perfectly positioned for access to the Heritage Coastline. The property itself sits upon a generous plot with a large gated driveway for several cars to the front and a generous rear garden which benefits from wonderful countryside views. Internally the property offers a large, welcoming hallway, two generous reception rooms in addition to a relaxing, spacious living room overlooking the rear garden with log burner, a large country style kitchen for the family to gather with space for a table and chairs and an electric Range Master, separate utility room and downstairs cloakroom. To the first floor there is a large landing area which could be utilised as a reading space or study area, a large master bedroom with ensuite bathroom, four further double bedrooms, and a large family bathroom. The low maintenance front garden is enclosed by a character dry stone wall with a driveway for several cars leading to the garage with an electrically operated door. Two pathways lead via both side elevations onto the generous Southerly facing rear garden which butts on to the open countryside.
