About the property

We introduce a rare gem to the market which is within level walking distance to Cowbridge High Street, being sold with no onward chain, this superb character property offers spacious and versatile living accommodation.

Comprising two double bedrooms, dressing areas to both bedrooms with fitted wardrobes, two en-suite shower rooms, plus a cloakroom to the ground floor. A large garage with a fob operated door, offers off road parking. A spacious and fully equipped kitchen with Island Unit which is open plan to a dining room or additional reception room. A bright and spacious lounge over looking Bear Field to the first floor. There are large windows, including roof windows to the first floor designed to increase light and natural ventilation, exposed stone wall features, plenty of storage, plus a small balcony area accessed from the master bedroom and a low maintenance courtyard garden.

The pretty and historic market town of Cowbridge is a hugely popular destination in the heart of the Vale of Glamorgan which offers many local facilities such as highly regarded schools, boutique shops, restaurants, library and health centre as well as sporting and recreational facilities including a leisure centre and cricket club etc.

Local road networks to the A48 and M4 mean major centres including Cardiff and Bridgend are within easy commuting distance. In addition, the Heritage coastline and beaches are just a few miles to the South.
