Lowther, Matterdale End

Lake District National Park

Lowther is a picturesque barn located in Matterdale End, a delightful and attractive hamlet within the Lake District National Park. Enjoying breathtaking views of the surrounding landscape with rolling hills to include the Wainwright Fells, lush forests, and serene lakes this area is renowned for its natural beauty and makes it a popular destination for nature lovers, hikers, cyclists, and outdoor enthusiasts.

Matterdale End itself, is a small, idyllic hamlet offering a peaceful escape from the hustle and bustle of city life and is within reach of Penrith railway station providing direct transport links to Manchester and London. Within this idyllic hamlet thrives a close-knit community, anchored by a local church, a welcoming pub in the nearby village of Dockray, and a bustling village hall in Watermillock.

This two bedroomed cottage provides a cosy and rustic retreat, whilst blending traditional architecture with modern amenities it is an ideal home/destination for those seeking relaxation, outdoor adventures, and invites you to unwind, explore the wonders of the Lake District, and immerse yourself in the tranquillity of the countryside.

Matterdale End is a delightful, attractive hamlet, peacefully positioned amidst magnificent Lakeland scenery between Ullswater and the A66 trunk road, the latter providing good access to the nearby market towns of Penrith (10 miles to the east) and Keswick (12 miles to the west). Penrith provides a railway station and both towns cater well for everyday needs i.e. shops, supermarkets and a wide variety of sports and leisure facilities. Ideal for those who enjoy outdoor activities as you will find the Lakeland fells and Ullswater easily accessible.

Tenure & EPC

The tenure will be Leasehold - The Leasehold term, costs and details are noted below and will be agreed during the conveyancing process of the sale. The EPC rating is E

Leasehold

- The tenure will be leasehold with a new lease being granted to the buyer.
- The length of the lease will be 999 years from 1st September 1999.
- Ground rent will be a peppercorn.
- Insurance will be the responsibility of the buyer/lessee, including that of the structural parts. The landlord insures the parts of the development which remain in the freehold ownership.
- The courtyard within the development is private and maintained by the landlord, subject to a fair contribution to maintenance costs.
- The property is connected to an existing septic tank, for which rights will be granted in the lease. Lowther will be required to contribute a fair proportion of the costs of emptying and maintaining the septic tank and associated pipework.

- The water supply, gas (tank) supply and electricity supply are currently shared with the remainder of the landlord's premises. It will be a condition of sale that Lowther is disconnected from the shared gas tank and the shared electricity supply at the buyer's expense. The buyer will be required to install an electricity meter for the benefit of Lowther. The water supply will remain shared, but the buyer will be required to install a separate water meter for the benefit of Lowther. The buyer will be required to allow water meter readings to be taken by the landlord on a quarterly basis and the buyer will reimburse the landlord for the cost of water use. Timescales for a buyer to carry out the necessary works will need to be decided.
- The property will have the benefit of a right to park one car in the courtyard. PLEASE NOTE WE ARE ADVISED: The title for this property will need to be split from another property and this will be actioned on the sale.
