12 Stybarrow Terrace

The Property

A charming and character filled 2 bed end of terrace stone cottage, nestled in a picturesque Lakeland valley, this traditional property offers a delightful retreat with well proportioned accommodation and serene surroundings.

The property benefits from a well-insulated interior which complements the deceptively light rooms, creating a cosy atmosphere. On the ground floor, the accommodation briefly comprises a welcoming living space that exudes warmth and character, complete with a lovely stone fireplace housing a wood-burning stove, south facing kitchen benefitting from a sunlit extension which provides a bright, warm dining area, looking out on the garden and to the fells, a three piece bathroom and an additional WC. On the first floor there are two bedrooms, including one large double bedroom, one spacious but smaller bedroom with room for twin beds, and on the second floor, a large attic room with Velux windows, and space to sleep three. Each room is designed to offer comfort and warmth, ideal at the end of a busy day.

Externally, the property enjoys a large rear garden with mature trees and space for games or for resting, in the peaceful setting. Surrounded by stunning mountain scenery, the garden provides a tranquil escape from the hustle and bustle of everyday life, full of birdsong, bees and buttercups.

Positioned to the rear of the property within the garden, there is a substantial green oak, slate-roofed work shed, fully insulated, with a suspended wood floor, valuable storage space and built for creative use as a workshop, office, studio, or overflow bedroom.

Three former coal houses adjoin the property at the gable end, one of which is converted into a ground floor bathroom for the cottage.

The property is located on the heart of the village, greatly adding to its appeal. The surrounding area offers a wealth of natural beauty and protected space. Helvellyn is up the hill to the left and Lake Ullswater is down the hill to the right. Within walking distance, there is something for everyone. A leisurely stroll across the fields or time in the garden surrounded by spectacular views, give residents the chance to drink the unique setting.

This 2 bed end of terrace historic stone cottage combines traditional charm with modern convenience, providing a cosy and welcoming home in beautiful surroundings, offering a wonderful opportunity to enjoy the comfort and peace of this unique area.

The Location

Glenridding is a popular tourist village situated in a prime position on the southern shores of Lake Ullswater in the central Lake District National Park, approximately 14 miles south west of Penrith and the M6. Keswick to the north west, Windermere and Kendal to the south, are all within a half hour drive and London is only three hours away by train from Penrith mainline railway station. Glenridding adjoins the delightful neighbouring village of Patterdale within the same parish. Local shops where all basic supplies can be found are only a 5 minutes' walk away. Popular pubs and restaurants can be found within a short walking distance. A local bus service is available from the village to Penrith, Keswick and Windermere. The cottage is within walking distance of major Lakeland peaks including Helvellyn, Catstycam, High Street and Angletarn Pikes.
