The Location & Directions

Appleby is an historic market town located just 14 miles south east of Penrith which lies on the London to Glasgow mainline. Appleby is situated just 10 miles east of the Lake District National Park and is at the foot of the Northern Pennines Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty and at the heart of the Eden Valley. It is serviced by the M6 via junction 38 at Tebay and the A66 bypasses the town and gives good access to the north and also to the south via the A1 at Scotch Corner. The town is served by a variety of small supermarkets, an assortment of independent shops, art galleries, boutique cafes, there is also an array of shops selling artisan fresh produce, a weekly market, schools which are rated good by Ofsted, numerous sports clubs and a railway station on the scenic Settle to Carlisle line.

Directions

From Penrith, take the A66 to Appleby, coming onto the slip road and at the junction turning left. Follow the road under the railway bridge and continue along the Sands past the Co-op, towards the Royal Oak. Take the right turn just after the Royal Oak and follow the road towards Jubilee Bridge. On reaching a fork in the road, take the left and follow the road onto Mill Hill, and the property is located a short distance along on the right hand side.
