DESCRIPTION

Hunters are pleased to offer for sale this beautifully presented top floor apartment in the favoured residential retirement development at Court Place. One of the key benefits is the stunning views over to the cliff face and sea and the surrounding hills. The light and airy living space comprises double bedroom, sitting/dining room with a double aspect and feature porthole glazed panel, shower room and newly fitted kitchen. There are a number of useful storage cupboards in the hallway. Incoming water supply and waste water is included within the purchase price, there is a nominal fee for the television licence of approximately £7.00 per annum.

Court Place is a retirement building for the over 60s, in a central location within close proximity of the town centre which offers many shops, cafes and restaurants. There is a local convenience store nearby and plenty of local bus routes. The Leas Promenade is a short walk away which offers pleasant walks with views out to sea. The building boasts a communal lounge, laundry facilities and guest suite. The mainline train station providing a fast link to St. Pancras International is a short walk away.
