Location:

Liskeard is an ancient market town conveniently located in the heart of South East Cornwall. The property sits just off Greenbank Road B3254 on the edge of the town centre.

From a wider perspective, the main London to Penzance railway line and the A38 trunk road provides Liskeard with direct access to Plymouth, which lies approximately 20 miles to the East, and the motorway network at Exeter, as well as the rest of Cornwall to the west.

Description:

Luxstowe House was originally constructed in 1831 as a large residential house, but more recently formed the main administrative centre for the former Caradon District Council. The property is Grade II Listed with a subsequent extension to the rear built in the late eighties, which is connected via a link corridor.

Accommodation:

All areas are approximate and taken from the Valuation Office assessment of floor area contained within the Business Rateable Value - on a net internal basis.
