Description

This charming detached family home is nestled in a peaceful private cul-de-sac, just a short stroll from the historic Magor Square. This sought-after property is conveniently located within walking distance of local amenities such as schools, independent shops, a post office, and nearby pubs and restaurants. Upon entering through a central hallway, you'll find a bright and inviting space adorned with durable tiled flooring. The home offers ample and adaptable living areas to suit various family needs. At the front, a cosy living space currently serves as a snug. Across from it, a spacious and well-equipped utility room awaits.

The country-style kitchen, located at the rear, boasts elegant floor and wall cabinets and has room for a range cooker, complemented by an adjoining dining area. The main reception room is filled with light and features a charming fireplace, leading to a sunny conservatory that offers lovely garden views.

The ground floor also includes a generous utility/laundry room and a cloakroom. Upstairs, the master bedroom features a well-sized ensuite shower room, while the second bedroom is a comfortable double, accompanied by two additional bedrooms. The family bathroom is tastefully tiled in neutral tones and includes a four-piece suite with a separate shower cubicle and a light-up mirror.

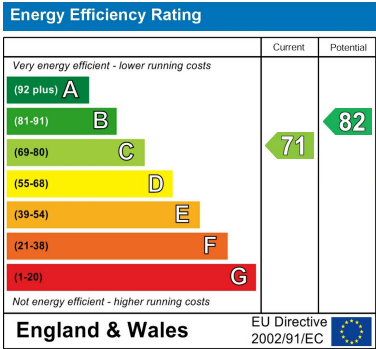

The rear garden is fully enclosed and private, primarily hard landscaped with attractive planted borders. At the front of the property, there is driveway parking for two vehicles. To schedule a viewing of this delightful family home, please contact Nathan James at 01291 421600.
