Description

NO CHAIN!

This cherished family home is now available to the market.

Ideally located for easy commuting by both road and rail, it is just a short walk from the Seven Tunnel Railway. The property is approached through a charming front garden that leads into a spacious entrance hallway with ample understairs storage. The sitting room offers a view of the rear gardens and features patio doors that open out to the outdoors. There is also a convenient ground floor shower room. The kitchen is equipped with both floor and wall units and provides space for a breakfast table. This area flows into a bright dining room, which includes additional patio doors that allow natural light to fill the space. Upstairs, you'll find three well proportioned bedrooms along with a family bathroom. The rear garden boasts a lovely patio area, a well-maintained lawn, and thoughtfully planted beds. The front garden also features a grassy area. Additional amenities include driveway parking for multiple vehicles and a detached garage. To arrange a viewing of this adaptable family home, please contact Nathan James at 01291 421600.
