Surrounding Area

Caldicot, (Welsh Cil-y-coed) is a small town with a population of approximately 11,000, in Monmouthshire, South-East Wales, surrounded by beautiful countryside and adjoining the Caldicot levels on the North side of the Severn Estuary. It has easy access by Motorway and Rail to Cardiff and Bristol. There are currently five Infant/Junior schools and one Comprehensive school. The large medical centre is close to the town centre, and hospitals are within easy reach in Chepstow and Newport.

The shopping centre is a flat, pedestrian area with free parking, and there are twice weekly markets in the town centre. Caldicot has an active leisure centre with swimming pool and there are several golf courses nearby. The town is proud of its history, and its Medieval Castle with spacious grounds and country park which are free for local residents to use.
