The Grounds

The grounds are a particular feature of this historic property and are estimated at just under two acres (1.95 acres) They have been significantly upgraded and altered by the present owners, with the more formal gardens to the side off the kitchen, with a large and recently extended stone patio with access off the kitchen, living room and bedroom 2. This patio opens onto a large level lawned garden which has a stainless steel boundary surround, and further extends to the front of the house where there is an additional garden, mostly lawn with a wealth of shrubbery to the boundaries., as well as access to the front paddock which has a soft fruit garden and also a Summer House. There is a more traditional style quarry tile patio to the front of the house. Of particular note is a recently built Summer House (4.86m x 2.86m) off the main side garden, being at a slightly lower level, being sheltered and enjoying a good amount of privacy as well as far reaching coastal/sea views. With electricity and water provided and double opening doors, it opens onto a recently laid stone patio, and adjoins a small herb and soft fruit garden.

For the keen gardener, there is a spacious area dedicated to a vegetable garden to include a recent 9 panel poly tunnel with water supply. Close by are two large metal sheds to house garden equipment and tractor. There is also a large log store provided. A footpath crosses over part of the garden.
