LOCATION

The Tillows are located 2 minutes' drive south of the village of Rothienorman, which has a population of around 1,100 people. Rothienorman has a village store and is in the vicinity of a number of larger population centres such as Huntly (4,500) to the west, Inch (2,700) to the south, and Oldmeldrum (3,100) and Inverurie (15,000) to the east. Of these only Oldmeldrum does not have a main line railway station, making travel easy through the rail network. Not only is the village ideally located to these other communities, it is also located centrally in the beautiful Aberdeenshire rolling countryside. The Tillows is ideally located close to the main A96 road, 5 minutes' drive away, the A96 being the main truck route from Aberdeen to Inverness and the route most likely used by guests.

The area surrounding Rothienorman is renowned for not only its beautiful country side but also its fertile land and it is agriculturally very productive and steeped in farming tradition. The village provides a great base from which to access a wide range of cultural, educational, environmental, religious, social and sporting groups providing activities. A short drive to the west of the village lies the great river Spey with its famed string of whisky distilleries (The Whisky Trail) and beyond to Inverness and the West Coast. To the south stand the hills of Royal Deeside visible from high ground around the village. Northward stretch the beaches, fishing ports and villages of the Moray Firth, which can be access in about 30 minutes by car. The prosperous city of Aberdeen sits to the east and is the oil capital of Scotland, some 45 minutes' drive away.

The owner's website has a great section on the attractions in the area offers, this includes, golf, wildlife, distilleries, castles, eating out, horse riding and an outdoor activity centre to name but a few.

THE TILLOWS

The original property was constructed in mid-1800s and is of stone construction under a pitched slate roof. Various sympathetic extensions have taken place since then including the pool building which was built 17 years ago and subsequently connected to the existing building. During the recent years, the entire renovation and re-development has been undertaken carefully, resulting in the fantastic facilities seen today. All areas of the 340m² building benefit from under-floor heating.

Ground Floor

Access to the main entrance of the house is through a timber gate into a secure paved area which is set with garden furniture outside the kitchen / diner. The kitchen / diner is open and a great place for guests to chat while food is being prepared. Most of the guest areas benefit from oak flooring. To the left there

The pool is 8m x 4m and the surrounding area is finished with a nonslip surface and is complete with a number of chairs. There is a shower located close to the pool.

Above the pool there is a beautifully appointed lounge, this area has a fully glazed south facing wall resulting in a delightful bright and airy space. The lounge is set with lovely soft furnishings. Adjacent to the lounge is a tea / coffee preparation area with fridge, allowing guests the luxury of not having to run back and forth to the kitchen to prepare drinks.

The kitchen / dinner is spacious and the substantial kitchen complete with 'American' style fridge with ice maker and built in appliances; dishwasher, 5-ring ceramic hob, ovens, warming drawer and microwave. The island area has a breakfast bar which can sit 4 people. To the side is the dining table. This is great space, forming the heart of the property.

Through a door to the south is the bedroom wing, this area has 3 bedrooms and a family bathroom with jacuzzi tub and shower cubicle. The end bedroom is king sized and has a shower ensuite. The other two bedrooms are slightly smaller, one being set as a double bed and the other with twin beds.

Leaving the kitchen on the east is the garden entrance lobby, from which access is available to the main lounge, WC and to 1st floor where there are two further bedrooms, one a double ensuite and the other a twin. The main lounge is a large space set around a feature electric fire place, with a large screen TV on one wall with digital channels included, the room can very comfortably accommodate 8 people seating with the current furniture. The lounge has patio door which lead out into the rear garden area.
