DESCRIPTION

The Horse Shoe Inn is a successful licensed Inn in an excellent trading location, in the centre of the bustling Highland village of Kilmichael Glassary, in the heart of Argyll and Bute. This striking building was built in the year 1798 and is of a traditional construction, painted stone walls with a slate roof. Over the years the building has been sympathetically adjusted and extended to the rear, into the well configured building we see today. The business enjoys income across all three traditional revenue streams of beverage sales, catering and accommodation provision with no over dependence on any.

The exceptionally spacious bar, together with a covered external seating area attracts a tremendous level of support from locals, tourists and business clientele alike. The restaurant and bars benefit from a delightful traditional backdrop coupled with stylish, high quality décor. The Inn offers an excellent range of draft beers, spirits, wines and minerals which are complemented by a comprehensive and popular bar menu for diners. The high-quality food and beverage operation combined with welcoming staff and the smart, well equipped, modern facilities give the bar a deservedly superb reputation – 5 stars on TripAdvisor where it is rated number 1 restaurant in the local area.

The public areas are all freshly decorated and cleverly considered to create a different ambience in each space, offering attractive and flexible alternatives for guests. Contemporary lighting, smart new floor finishings and stylish furnishings combine to create a fresh modern setting in which to enjoy a relaxed drink or sample the delights of the great food offered. Meals are freshly prepared using locally sourced produce where possible.

The business benefits from an exceptional one bedroom self-catering apartment with separate entrance and secure garden as well as a 1-2 bedroom owners' accommodation. Both areas are also finished to an extremely high standard.

BUSINESS OPERATION

The business operates 5 evenings per week providing wet and food sales in the evening. The trading hours are the lifestyle choice of the owners and offers the scope to extend the opening hours should the new owners desire. Currently the owners are not letting out the delightfully finished letting bedrooms (although they have done so in previous year). This is again a lifestyle choice and presents another opportunity to new owners to expand the business without incurring any significant additional costs.
