Experience a Slice of History with Harbourfront Elegance Step into the enchanting world of the Anchor Inn, where history and luxury combine in a remarkable waterfront apartment. Originally designed in 1901 by George Henry Page, this Bavarian Gothic masterpiece has been an iconic part of Brightlingsea for over a century.

In 2000, this storied building was thoughtfully transformed into three luxurious apartments, each with its own unique charm. A Historic Gem by the Water. Imagine waking up to the gentle sounds of the harbour, where the morning light fills this magnificent property with high ceilings and magnificent views, offering two reception rooms, open plan kitchen and dining area, three bedrooms, the principal with En suite, family bathroom, cellar and terrace. As you move through the home, the high ceilings and spacious rooms evoke a sense of grandeur and sophistication with a wealth of features throughout.

Directly overlooking the Harbour, the open-plan well appointed kitchen and dining area has an abundance of light which streams in from the large windows, and is perfect for entertaining and serves as the heart of this home. The reception room, also with large windows, invite you to unwind and enjoy the stunning views of the estuary. Benefitting from two dedicated parking spaces, terrace and communal courtyard plus no onward chain, making this property an ideal holiday escape or family home.

Location & Lifestyle: Coastal Charm: Nestled by the waterside in the coastal town of Brightlingsea, just eleven miles from Colchester. Brightlingsea is a bustling town with a wide selection of shops, schools, and amenities. Perfect for sailors and yachting enthusiasts, with sports and recreational clubs nearby. Major Road links and Train Stations are just a short drive. Mooring is available through the local harbour office for sailing enthusiasts. This unique apartment offers unparalleled views and lifestyle - No chain.
