Heath Drive, Hampstead, London NW3 7SN

This lateral apartment (2,125 sq ft) occupies the entire first floor of a handsome period residence on a peaceful, tree-lined drive in Hampstead. The property offers great accommodation, ideal for family living with generously proportioned rooms.

The property comprises of a spacious hallway, kitchen/breakfast room, four double bedrooms, all equipped with fitted wardrobes. Two of these bedrooms benefit from en-suite bathrooms, while the other two share a large third bathroom. A separate utility room houses both a washing machine and a dryer, offering practical storage space.

An additional perk is the flat roof space, which could potentially be incorporated into the apartment (subject to permission), providing a unique opportunity to create an outdoor area or further living space.

Although the apartment would benefit from some updating, it presents an exciting opportunity to refurbish and tailor the interiors to personal preferences.

Located between Redington Road and Finchley Road, Heath Drive is well-connected with access to Finchley Road & Frognal Overground Station, Hampstead and Finchley Road Underground stations, as well as numerous bus routes that offer easy access to Central London.
