The charming Midlothian village of Roslin lies in the shadow of the Pentland Hills and is famous for its 15th century Rosslyn Chapel. Roslin is well within commuting distance of Edinburgh's city centre, yet its peaceful location offers a complete contrast to city dwelling. There are a few shops on hand to cater for every day needs, with a superb range of shopping outlets available at the impressive Straiton Retail Park which includes a Marks and Spencer and Sainsbury. The open countryside promises hours of pleasure from activities such as pony trekking and hill walking, and the Hillend Ski Slope is also closeby. Schooling is well represented from nursery to senior level. For the commuter there is easy access to the city bypass and a frequent public transport system operates through the village, to and from Edinburgh and further afield.
