

WITH LOCKED ON PLANNING

Plot at 1 Craigleach, Dunain, Inverness, IV3 8JN

Offers Over £149,000

REF: 60702

Located in the "hidden gem" area of Dunain and offering a tranquil country lifestyle with direct access to Dunain woods and the Great Glen Way, whilst also having all the nearby conveniences of a City, plot 1 extends to 0.89 acres and comes with full planning permission for a 5 bedroom modern contemporary home with feature spiral staircase. Full details of which can be found on the Highland Council website ref: 22/02279/FUL . The purchaser can construct the house type already approved or construct an alternative house type by obtaining amended design approval from the Planning Department. Planning has been 'locked on' as development has commenced on site by way of redirecting the water pipes.

Electricity is on site with the connection fees have been paid by the seller. Scottish Water have installed a new mains water pipe which runs parallel to the Northern boundary. Drainage is by way of septic tank.

While enjoying a peaceful country location the property is within very easy commuting distance of excellent facilities in the city of Inverness. Education is provided at Dochgarroch Primary School or Charleston Academy . Facilities closest to the property can be found on the edge of the city which include a general store and take away. Also close by is the Aquadome, Bught Park, hotels, bars and Loch Ness with its infamous Monster.

Inverness, the main business and commercial centre in the Highlands also offers extensive shopping and entertainment facilities

Services
