Seller Insight

“ We bought the house on its completion, and I can honestly say that it was everything about it that made us want to buy it,” says the owner. “Not only is the house exceptionally attractive, but the location is absolutely idyllic, and somewhere we’ve been able to enjoy the best of both worlds. We’re completely surrounded by a patchwork of rolling fields and pretty orchards so it’s really peaceful and picturesque, and we can quite literally step out of our front door and walk for miles. However, at the same time we’re only a few minutes’ drive from West Malling – or a brisk walk across the fields – so everything we need on a day-to-day basis is close at hand, and we can also walk to the station so it’s a great spot for commuting.”

“The house itself is absolutely gorgeous. Each property within the development is completely individual and they’ve been constructed in part using reclaimed materials to reflect the history of the surrounding area, so they look as if they’ve been here a lot longer than ten years. Ours is particularly attractive, and inside it’s warm and spacious, and the layout is wonderfully conducive to both busy family life and entertaining. During our time here we’ve added a beautiful oak-framed orangery, which flows from both the kitchen and the main living room. It’s one of our favourite rooms because it’s so light and bright, and the huge window at the end gives us a stunning view of the garden and our apple orchard beyond. It is a stunning entertaining and dining space.”

“The house sits on around a quarter of an acre, so we have a lovely big family garden with mature trees and a large patio where we have BBQs for friends and family. The apple orchard is a gorgeous extra private green space, with views of Blue Bell Hill. The apple trees are festooned with blossom at the moment so look absolutely stunning, and we’ll have an abundance of fruit during the summer months, which I use for chutney, apple sauce and crumbles.”

“We’ve enjoyed every minute of our time here and it’s going to be a real wrench to leave. I’ll miss the peace and quiet, these beautiful surroundings, the warm and welcoming atmosphere of the house and also our orchard. I’ll make sure I take plenty of my homemade chutney and apple sauce with me when we leave!” *
