£349,950

An impressive and spacious Victorian townhouse, perfect for a large family or multi-generational living. With potential to be split into multiple dwellings (subject to planning consent), this versatile property offers substantial accommodation across four floors.

Description

This impressive, imposing home boasts classic Victorian charm, including painted Marland brick elevations, decorative coving, and fireplaces, while offering modern conveniences like UPVC double-glazed windows and a slate roof.

The ground floor features an inviting entrance hall leading to a bright sitting room with a bay window and period features, along with a stylish kitchen/diner equipped with modern appliances. Two bedrooms and a shower room complete this level. On the first floor, there is a large double bedroom, a second kitchen/diner, another sitting room, and a shower room, offering potential for independent living. The second floor includes four spacious bedrooms, two of which are intercommunicating.

The lower ground floor, accessed via the rear courtyard, offers excellent storage and utility space with further potential for development. Externally, the property benefits from a small courtyard at the front and a gated rear courtyard garden with off-street parking.

This home could be perfect for a multi-generational or large family. With two separate service supplies, the property offers the flexibility to create self-contained living spaces, particularly on the ground floor, which is ideal for elderly relatives. The ground floor already features two bedrooms, a kitchen/diner, a sitting room, and a shower room, offering independent living with easy access. Meanwhile, the upper floors provide ample space for the rest of the family, ensuring privacy and comfort for all generations under one roof. The versatile layout makes it easy to adapt the home to suit various family needs.

This impressive Victorian townhouse also has excellent potential to be converted into a large 8-bedroom HMO, offering a lucrative investment opportunity. With four spacious floors, the property could easily be adapted to provide self-contained rooms, each with access to shared kitchens, bathrooms, and living areas. The current layout already includes multiple bedrooms, two kitchens, and several reception rooms, which could be repurposed as additional bedrooms or communal spaces. The lower ground floor, currently used for storage, could be transformed into further living accommodation or communal utility areas. With a gated courtyard at the rear offering off-street parking, this property is well-suited for tenants.

Located in a prime position, this exceptional home is ideal for those seeking space, character, and the opportunity to create a unique multi-generational residence or convert it into separate units. Don't miss out on this rare opportunity!
