Tucked away in one of First Raleigh's most desirable residential areas, this substantial five-bedroom detached home offers an abundance of space, character, and flexibility—perfectly suited for growing families or those seeking multi-generational living.

Thoughtfully extended and beautifully maintained, the property boasts an impressive layout that includes up to three reception rooms, two bathrooms, downstairs WC and a conservatory—providing a wealth of living and entertaining options.

A private driveway provides ample off-road parking and turning space for multiple vehicles, and the attractive frontage is enhanced by a recently constructed oak-framed porch that adds a warm, welcoming touch.

Inside, a generous entrance hall sets the tone for the rest of the home. The principal lounge flows seamlessly into a cosy snug, complete with a wood-burning stove that adds both charm and a natural focal point. Across the hall, a well-proportioned dining room offers a more formal setting for meals and gatherings, while the adjoining conservatory enjoys pleasant views over the garden and makes for an ideal spot to unwind.

The kitchen is positioned at the rear of the property and offers excellent potential, with room for casual dining or a breakfast bar if desired. A convenient ground-floor cloakroom is also in place, fitted with a WC and wash basin.

Upstairs, you'll find five comfortable bedrooms, all of generous proportions. The main bedroom includes a range of fitted wardrobes, while the fifth bedroom lends itself perfectly to use as a home office—ideal for remote working. Two bathrooms cater to the needs of busy households, ensuring no morning queues.

Externally, the property continues to impress. The wraparound garden has been designed for both relaxation and entertaining, featuring several seating areas that catch the sun throughout the day. A private, brick-paved patio offers the perfect setting for summer BBQs or quiet evenings with friends.
