The apartment has just been recently painted throughout and is presented in excellent condition. It comprises two good size bedrooms, open plan kitchen and reception room, a family bathroom, a private garden and shed. In addition the apartment offers access to a loft which provides lots of storage throughout. Set within the highly sought after Furzedown area and situated within the catchment area for Graveney Secondary School and Penwortham Primary School and within a short walk away from Streatham Common railway station and Tooting Broadway tube station with a number of buses at your doorstep taking you to various places of London. Perfect apartment for a small family or professional sharers looking in the area. Located in the Wandsworth Borough for council tax which is one of the cheapest in the UK. This is a super apartment which must be seen to avoid disappointment. Available on the market on a unfurnished basis. Early viewings are highly recommended.
