Tucked away down a private drive, this detached bungalow has much to commend it. Set in a well enclosed plot, it has an entrance hallway with a cloakroom and two reception rooms with double doors leading from one room to the other. The kitchen is well appointed and there are three bedrooms, all with fitted wardrobes. The family bathroom has a separate shower cubicle in addition to the bath and both the walls and floor are tiled. The property has replacement double glazing and this is complemented by a gas system with the boiler having been replaced in 2021. The presentation of the property is of credit to the owners and it also benefits from a driveway leading to a double garage with two doors. The rear garden is very thoughtfully laid out and tiered having a raised decked area with balustrades and a barbeque/patio area to take advantage of the sunshine. The bungalow also has a low maintenance brick exterior. This is a pleasant and popular area in which to live and Illogan offers shopping facilities, bus services, a fish and chip shop plus a pub. There is access to the country park at Tehidy and the north coast at Portreath.
