We are delighted to bring to market this detached four bedroom extended property, cited in a particularly quiet area of Illogan, Redruth. This house makes a considerable statement as soon as it comes into view, its frontage is a striking blend of materials, giving a clean, welcoming look. Considerable parking is on offer, the driveway and car port are complemented by a single garage that includes the bonus of an inspection pit and load bearing RSJ's.

Internally, the ground floor offers exceptionally spacious family accommodation with the benefit of a downstairs WC and the fourth bedroom could potentially be repurposed as a study, left as a guest room or fully returned as a permanent bedroom, having an ensuite shower room. The initial large reception room flows into the lounge which in turn leads into the dual aspect dining room. From there, you will find an open plan kitchen/utility area which provides all the cooking facilities you will need, given the integrated equipment. Much storage is offered by the gloss white units, complemented with built in handles. To the first floor, there are two double bedrooms, a single currently used as a study which could be repurposed back to a bedroom. The bedrooms are further complemented by a well-equipped family bathroom.

Externally, the rear garden offers a peaceful, low-maintenance retreat, a shingled area bordered by patio slabs and mature bushes, shrubs and trees, with storage in the shape of a block built shed in one corner.

In terms of location, Redruth & Camborne town centres are equidistant. In addition, the property is close to the largest area of woodland in West Cornwall, with access to Tehidy Country Park & Golf Course in under 10 minutes by car. Also, within' proximity, are several North Cornwall coastal towns including Portreath which is a mere 8 minutes or so by car. Furthermore, other surrounding beaches and local attractions can be found nearby.
