Offered with the benefit of no onward chain, this well presented detached bungalow offers light and airy living accommodation. There are two bedrooms, an open plan lounge/dining room, a kitchen and shower room. The property is double glazed and this is complemented by modern electric heaters. Externally there are gardens to both front and rear with the bonus of a garage and driveway parking for several vehicles.

Situated in the historic village of St Day and set in a very quiet and peaceful cul-de-sac location, we are pleased to bring to market this delightfully well presented, bright and open detached bungalow, having the added benefit of being offered with no onward chain. Internally, the property benefits from a large open plan lounge/living room/diner with laminate flooring that extends into the kitchen. The living area is enhanced by the large double windows that overlook the south facing front garden. There is an open fireplace with chimney which the current vendor has said could be re-instated. There is a well presented kitchen, also to the front of the property. The property has two bedrooms which both overlook the large rear garden and these are complemented by a family shower room. Externally, there is a primarily laid to lawn south facing front garden which is a particular suntrap and also overlooks the church whilst the rear garden is very low maintenance, being mostly gravelled bordering a smaller laid to lawn feature but with enough space to site a summer house or similar should that appeal to the new owner. In terms of location, there are many local amenities in the village within short walking distance including two convenience stores, a Post Office, butchers, pharmacy and a public house. There is also a second public house nearby, being within a fifteen minute walk. The centre of Redruth can be reached in minutes by car. Further afield, both Falmouth and Truro are equidistant and can be reached in around twenty five minutes or less by car. The coastal town of Portreath, with its beach and access to the South West Coastal Path, can be reached in less than twenty minutes by car whilst the largest area of woodland in West Cornwall, Tehidy Country Park along with Tehidy Park Golf Club, are within a similar distance. The property location is also within proximity to many other North Cornwall coastal towns as well as other surrounding attractions being easily accessible. There are bus services and it is also worth noting that there are many local walks to be found around the St. Day area.
