

THE FARMSTEAD

BURTON JOYCE

BUILDING A COMMUNITY

A development with a difference, Tania and Frank are at the heart of The Farmstead, farming the neighbouring land and championing the idyllic location and luxurious lifestyle these homes offer.

Neighbours, not simply developers, Tania and Frank have a personal connection to each and every home at The Farmstead. Taking pride in the development, each member of the team involved in this project is passionate about creating a unique and community feel at The Farmstead.

BESPOKE LUXURY HOMES

Designing and building our own home is the ultimate dream for most of us, and at The Farmstead, you can experience that autonomy by adding your own personalised touches to your home – from detailed brickwork to bespoke kitchen and bathroom features and beyond.

Homeowners can choose to convert garages to gyms or annexes. Maximise the space by adding a room above the garage for use as a home office that doubles as a self-contained living space. At The Farmstead, we take the concept of multifunctional space to another level.

Adaptability is at the heart of these homes, with many homes having 4-5 bedrooms, which can easily be repurposed for smaller families to incorporate dressing rooms and full bedroom suites; when you buy a home at The Farmstead, you really are buying a home; not bricks and mortar.

“We have a vested personal interest in The Farmstead, we want to build something future generations can be proud of, a legacy as we continue to farm the surrounding land.”

ATTENTION TO DETAIL

With an eye for detail, and excellence as our benchmark, the creative builds on The Farmstead have been visualised and brought to life by Ben Atkin from BMA Homes. A selective developer, Ben only works on unique, one-off projects, specialising in countryside renovations and new builds.

A RURAL REFUGE

Swap the city pace for the restorative bliss of rurality at The Farmstead, an exclusive development of homes with a difference, wrapped up in protected greenbelt land on the cusp of Burton Joyce.

A stunning redevelopment of a former dairy farm and outbuildings; special approval was granted for The Farmstead, a 14-home countryside enclave, to be thus titled.

Nestled up a private road, winding up from the bottom of Glebe Drive, The Farmstead is a safe and secure community. Peaceful and quiet, the only passing cars are residents or visitors, there is no through-traffic.

"We wanted to do the right thing for the village and for ourselves"

YOUR PRIVATE RETREAT

Safe and secure, the elevated plot is enclosed by sympathetic fence and banking, rewarding these picturesque properties with idyllic views over the valley. Surrounded by greenbelt land, there are no public footpaths, meaning nothing to disturb the tranquility, except for the reassuringly rural hum of the occasional tractor.

THE HOMES

At the pinnacle of our development are The Farmstead's premium homes, with backdrops to the woodland and valley and incredible views, particularly from upper levels. Each home takes its name from the farmland and surrounding area, including The Paddocks, Fox Covert and Riverdale...

QUALITY & PRESTIGE

Prestigious homes in keeping with their surroundings, each home at The Farmstead epitomises natural beauty. Built with character and individual style, warmth and comfort preside over modern minimalism to offer modern living with rural charm.

Each uniquely designed home affords ample parking along the driveway, with provision for an electric vehicle charging point in the private garage, also served by power and lighting.

Glass Crittall doors flood entrance hallways with light, providing tantalising previews through to open-plan kitchen-dining family rooms, overlooking the garden. Each home sits in total harmony with its plot, making the most of verdant views with floor to ceiling French doors, creating a seamless flow with the outdoors.

Distinguishing The Farmstead from other new build developments is not only its sublime greenbelt setting, but also the superior build quality and interiors.

TECHNICAL TRIUMPHS

Underfloor heating exudes warmth throughout the ground floor of each home, whilst chrome sockets, switches, television and USB points feature in every room. Feature wall lights in the lounge add classic comfort (with multi-fuel stove installation available by upgrade). For those working from home, BT points to the study offer ultra-fast broadband.

INTERNAL ELEGANCE

Superior craftsmanship is another distinguishing feature of The Farmstead homes, with oak staircases, iron rails and glass balustrades. Cook up a feast for family and friends in the bespoke kitchens, furnished in handmade cabinetry by Charles Yorke.

With stunning quartz worktops as standard, each home comes with the option to select whatever built-in appliances your heart desires – from the latest high-tech coffee machine to all the culinary gadgets and appliances needed to ensure easy living – every brand imaginable is available. Prefer to leave it to the developer to choose? As standard, high-class appliances from Bosch or Siemens ensure a fine calibre of finish.

Tiled throughout the downstairs and bathrooms, with plush carpet to the bedrooms on the upper floors and stairs, feel free to add your own personalisation, from freestanding baths at the ends of beds to oak flooring: sometimes the perfect home begins with owning the journey.

CHARLES YORKE
