

31 Brunt Street, Mansfield
Nottinghamshire NG18 1AX
£950

Welcome to the newly refurbished and refreshed Brunt Street. A spacious and well maintained family home ready for your own homely touches.

31 Brunts Street

Enter through the hallway, with a large lounge to the left with a bay window, radiator and tv point newly painted with new carpets. With the stairs ahead the left leads to a large carpeted dining room with a large window with garden views. Leading to a breakfast kitchen. Newly fitted white gloss doors with marble effect worktops. A space for your own laundry appliance. There is plenty of space for a small breakfast table along with power for your own freestanding fridge/freezer. A door also leads to a cellar space and back door leads to a large concrete garden space.

Leading up the newly carpeted staircase straight ahead is an extended hallway with window, a space perfect for a chair or desk and a cupboard to house the boiler. This leads to the family shower room, with wc, sink & large shower enclosure.

At the top of the stairs the second bedroom has a large window with garden views along with shelving and a radiator. Further along the hallway is the main bedroom with a large bay window. A second staircase leads to a third good sized attic bedroom along with a storage cupboard.

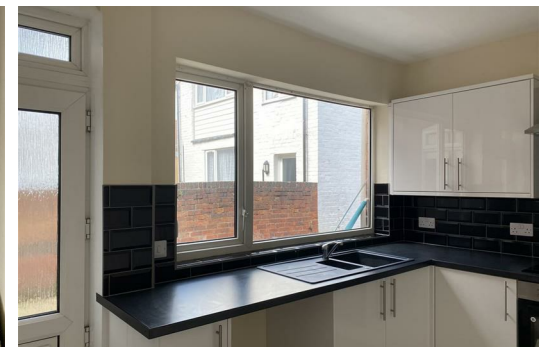

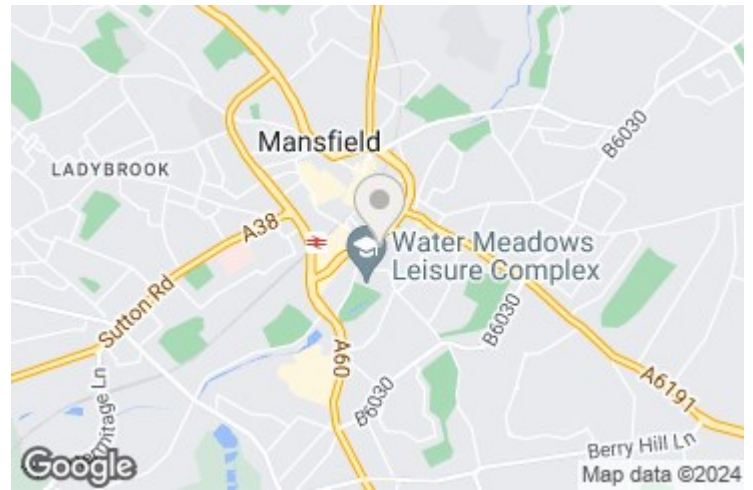

Brunt Street is well located for the centre of Mansfield. Plenty of street parking is available, a permit is required.

Neutrally decorated, this attractive property is spacious and adaptable to modern family living, additionally benefitting from an enclosed rear garden.

This property does not allow smoking.
