121 Peterborough Road, Ailsworth Peterborough Freehold £725,000

Key Features

- Stone Built Grade 2 Listed Home
- Converted Former Pub
- Many Original Features
- Generous Sized Gardens
- Sought After Village Location

Constructed from traditional stone, the property retains a wealth of character features, including spacious rooms and impressively high ceilings throughout.

Offering generous accommodation, the property includes three well-proportioned double bedrooms, a four piece family bathroom, and multiple large feature reception rooms ideal for entertaining or family living. The country-style fitted kitchen adds to the home's rustic charm, providing both functionality and warmth.

Additional features include two basement rooms offering flexible use-perfect for storage, a home office, or even a wine cellar. To the rear, the property boasts generous off-road parking and a private garden area.

Please note that the location of doors, windows and other items are approximate and this floorplan is to be used for illustrative purposes only. Unauthorized reproduction is prohibited.

Conveniently located with easy access to Peterborough city centre and the mainline railway station, this home is also within the catchment of well-regarded local schools and enjoys close proximity to beautiful surrounding countryside.

A truly rare opportunity to own a piece of local history, with all the benefits of enjoying the hard work undertaken by the current owners.

The sought after village of Castor & Ailsworth, looks to its origins from Roman times in the area, with its vast reach stretching along the old Ermine Street to London, and across Nene Valley.

The village itself is situated only 6 miles from the city centre with the railway connection to London (morning commute under 45 minutes), surrounding glorious countryside, the historic town of Stamford only a short drive away, and a local school and a vibrant local community, all go to make this property a fantastic new home for the discerning buyer.
