The Property

This three bedroom detached bungalow is located in the town in a popular close of similar properties. A deep covered porch opens into the hallway where there is a spacious sitting/dining room with a stone fireplace which overlooks the front garden. The kitchen to the rear has a range of base cupboards and houses the wall mounted gas central heating boiler. A door to the side leads out to the garden, the owners have obtained planning consent to build a room off the kitchen to provide a dining room or second reception room, with an adjoining cloakroom. The bathroom comprises of a bath with a shower over, wash basin and W.C. There are three bedrooms, two of which are doubles and one single bedroom which is currently used as a dressing room.

The property has the benefit of upvc double glazing and gas central heating, with new hard floorings laid throughout.

Garden

To the side is a single detached garage which is fitted with a roller door with driveway parking to the front. The owners are currently using the garage as a studio/workroom with a tool store to the front, but could easily revert back into a garage.

The bungalow is set back from the close by a deep lawned garden, retained by a low brick wall. The good sized lawned gardens wrap around the property with mature hedges and trees on the boundary, giving a good degree of privacy. There is a garden pond and a paved area for sitting out.

Location

The property is located in a popular residential area of the market town of Halesworth. Halesworth provides many independent shops, Primary school, public houses, restaurants, doctors, vets and a supermarket. It has a thriving centre of arts for the community called 'The Cut' which is used as a theatre, cinema, exhibitions and workshops. There is a train station at Halesworth with services to London Liverpool Street via Ipswich. The unspoilt heritage coastline of Suffolk with the lovely beaches of Southwold and Walberswick are a 20 minute drive away.
